Their solutions integrate mains electricity, solar PV, and diesel generators through intelligent multi-power switching systems. Cabinets are built from high-quality cold-rolled steel with anti-corrosion treatments and optimized internal layouts for low-voltage distribution systems, ensuring durability in high temperatures, humidity, and dust. Purcee Industrial Africa (DRC & South Africa) Purcee manufactures electrical panels, distribution and control panels, pump and fan starter panels, lightning and power transformers, and custom-built solutions for industrial and commercial applications.

All products are manufactured and tested in-house to meet international standards, supporting critical operations across Africa, particularly in mining and industrial sectors. Henelec Switchboards (South Africa) Henelec produces distribution boards, motor control centers, electrical starters, enclosures, kiosks, and related accessories. They offer custom designs and fabrication services, supplying both South African and regional markets.

Their products are designed for reliability and durability in industrial and commercial applications. Allbro (South Africa) Allbro is a leading manufacturer of non-metallic enclosures, junction boxes, DB boards, and transformer equipment. They supply industrial, commercial, and residential sectors, producing all products locally to international standards.

Allbro also acquired ABB's South African enclosure business, expanding their product range and market presence. Onesto Africa (South Africa) Onesto Africa manufactures electrical products for power distribution, industrial control, and photovoltaic systems. Their offerings include modular power distribution devices, enclosures, switches, sockets, and control gear, all compliant with international standards such as BS, EN, IEC, CE, UL, and TUV.

Africa Switchgear (South Africa) Africa Switchgear specializes in medium-voltage equipment, including underground and surface miniature substations, power and distribution transformers, switchgear, and low-voltage panels. They provide both new and refurbished equipment, with robust designs suitable for African industrial and urban infrastructure projects.

Summary

These manufacturers provide a wide range of power distribution solutions suitable for industrial, commercial, and utility applications across Africa. They offer customization, compliance with international standards, and durable designs to withstand harsh environmental conditions. Depending on your project requirements—such as voltage level, enclosure material, or integration with renewable energy systems—these companies can serve as reliable sources for power distribution boxes and related electrical infrastructure.
