Key Takeaways

Domestic network racks and chassis prices range from approximately ₹1,500 per piece for basic racks to several thousand dollars for high-end enterprise chassis.

Network Racks and Cabinets

Retail options for network racks and cabinets are widely available online: Amazon offers wall-mounted and floor-standing server cabinets, such as the VEVOR 6U, 12U, and 15U wall-mount cabinets, with load capacities ranging from 200 lbs to 500 lbs, suitable for IT equipment and A/V devices. Prices vary depending on size and features, typically starting from around $100 for smaller units. Newegg lists home and office network cabinets, including 22U rack-mount cabinets with caster wheels compatible with US and European rack standards.

Prices for these cabinets generally start from $150–$300 depending on size and mobility features. Graybar provides a selection of network racks and cabinets with features like perforated doors for airflow, removable panels, and cable management options. Pricing is ZIP code-specific, so contacting Graybar directly is recommended for accurate domestic pricing.
