Art

Max, Mebelain, Radial, Mr. Doors, Elisa, Anri These companies focus on custom-made cabinets, including radius and corner cabinets. They provide tailored solutions for specific measurements and interior requirements, often assembling cabinets on-site.

5. Deckro / PMC Telecom Deckro and PMC Telecom supply 19" rack cabinets, outdoor telecom cabinets, and data center racks. They offer both standard and custom clusters, including IP-rated outdoor enclosures suitable for telecom and networking applications.

6. Intellinet Network Solutions While based in Europe, Intellinet distributes data center equipment and networking cabinets, including PoE and server racks, and may serve Russian clients through dealer access.

Considerations for Selection

Type of Cabinet: Determine whether you need indoor, outdoor, or data center racks. Outdoor cabinets often require IP-rated protection. Customization: Many Russian manufacturers offer custom dimensions, materials, and configurations.

Distribution Network: Companies like Aristo and VELAN have extensive dealer networks across Russia, which can simplify logistics. Special Features: Some suppliers provide explosion-proof, biosafety, or telecom-specific enclosures.

Summary

For sourcing network cabinets in Russia, VELAN Group, LAMSYSTEMS, Aristo, and Deckro/PMC Telecom are among the most notable manufacturers. For custom or specialized solutions, companies like ArtMax, Mebelain, and Radial provide tailored designs. Additionally, international distributors like Intellinet can complement local sourcing for data center and networking equipment.
