Somali optical fiber cable manufacturer company

Overview

A Limited liability company registered in Somalia and United Arab Emirates, Dalkom Somalia is privately owned and funded by Somalian Individuals and Investment Companies.

Key Takeaways

Somalia has several leading companies providing optical fiber network services, though local manufacturing of fiber cables is limited. Key Providers1. Dalkom Somalia Dalkom Somalia operates a vast network covering 30 African countries with over 55,000 km of optical fiber.

They have strategic investments in submarine cables such as EASSy, EIG, and WACS, enabling international connectivity and resilient network solutions. 2. Somali Optical Network (SOON) SOON is a privately owned Somali company licensed to provide telecommunications infrastructure.

They offer fiber-to-the-home (FTTH), local loop capacity, data transit services, video broadcasting, and surveillance services.

SOO

N also provides international interconnectivity for Somali operators and carriers. 3. Somcable Founded in 2009, Somcable is a wholesale fiber optic operator covering 80% of Somaliland and connecting Djibouti, Somaliland, and Puntland.

Their network uses Dense Wavelength Division Multiplexing (DWDM) technology capable of transmitting over 400 Gb/s, with redundant paths for high reliability. 4.

Somtel FG

C Somtel Global Connect (FGC) manages national and international fiber sales, offering high-bandwidth solutions over a 36 Tb backbone network. They provide customized services for businesses, including internet, data, and network solutions.

Summary

While Somalia has robust optical fiber network providers, there is no publicly available evidence of companies manufacturing optical fiber cables locally. Most Somali companies focus on network deployment, maintenance, and international connectivity, leveraging imported fiber cables and advanced network technologies. Businesses seeking optical fiber infrastructure in Somalia typically work with these providers for installation, leasing, and connectivity services.
