Stripping of Color-Striped Optical Cables

Overview

An optical fiber stripper is designed to remove these buffer and acrylate coatings, typically from a 250µm or 900µm diameter down to the 125µm cladding. This process is a critical prerequisite for both fusion splicing and connector termination. In some applications, “window strip” operations are required, where a short section of coating is. Utilizing SAE Technologies' patented “Burst Technology™”, this system accomplishes the often difficult task of window stripping fibers with acrylate coating diameters up to 1,000 µm. The AutoStrip II automated, mid-span window stripping unit meets the need for variable window strip lengths at high. Stripping and preparing fibre optic cables for termination is a critical step in the installation and maintenance of fibre optic networks. Jonard Tools. Marcel Buijs, EMEA Business Development, Technical Sales, Fiber Optic Center, Inc. with over twenty-five years in the photonics industry, brings the latest information on making the ultimate fiber optic product and improving process yield. Without question, good stripping techniques in your fiber.
